

5 THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT THE ONLINE PLATFORM FOR HEALTHCARE JOINT OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY COMMITTEES

1) WHAT IS THE OHS RESOURCE CENTRE?

It's an online platform for all healthcare Joint Occupational Health & Safety Committees (JOHSC) and leaders with easy access to agendas, minutes, resources, and actions to improve and enhance a culture of safety throughout B.C.

2) WHY DO PEOPLE WORKING IN HEALTHCARE NEED THE OHS RESOURCE CENTRE?

They need equal and standardized access to an online platform that allows them to schedule and run JOHSC meetings and monitor progress anywhere in the health system.

3) WHAT ARE THE KEY FEATURES?

- JOHSC meeting agendas, schedules, and minutes
- Committee management, including Terms of Reference and membership
- Easy tracking of action items and decisions
- Directories to find JOHSC so staff can send health and safety ideas or concerns to committees
- 21 Day recommendation letters
- Dashboards that are customized based on roles and responsibilities

4) WHO CAN ACCESS THE OHS RESOURCE CENTRE?

All employees will have access to JOHSC meeting minutes in their organization and provincial OHS resources.

JOHSC members, unions, and employer leaders have meeting management system with dashboards with schedules, meetings, minutes, resources, and reports.

5) WHEN CAN I START USING THE OHS RESOURCE CENTRE?

Spring 2024!

Visit www.switchbc.ca and stay up-to-date on the project.

